Ethical Practices Board Issues Summary Of 1993 Campaign Finance Reports for State Candidates, Officeholders, Political Committees, and Political Funds

Total campaign expenditures by state candidates and officeholders in nonelection year 1993 reached $1,327,750, from resources totaling $2,491,767, according to a summary of their campaign reports compiled by the Ethical Practices Board.

The Board's summary includes data from three special house district elections in 1993 and 1994 (Districts 1B, 40A, and 15B).

Comparison of data reported for 1993 by principal campaign committees, political committees, or political funds with similar data from nonelection years 1991 and 1989 is included in the report. Candidates for State Constitutional Offices and the House of Representatives will be seeking nomination and election in 1994.

State constitutional officeholders reported making total campaign expenditures of $774,291 in 1993. State representatives reported total campaign expenditures of $372,328 in 1993, a 15% increase from $322,639 in nonelection year 1991. State senators reported total campaign expenditures of $197,023, a 54% decrease from $429,877 total campaign expenditures in 1991.

State Officeholders

Individuals, political committees and funds, and political parties contributed $2,489,167 to campaign committees of state officeholders in 1993, including total contributions of $1,386,056 to state constitutional officeholders. Of this amount, $545,431 was received from 1,046 contributors in amounts of more than $200 (39% of contributions received). State senators received total contributions of $425,638 with 7% received from 86 contributors in amounts of more than $100. State representatives received total contributions of $677,474 with 10% from 113 contributors in amounts of more than $100.

The summary includes reports of receipts and expenditures by the principal campaign committees of the governor, attorney general, state treasurer, state auditor, secretary of state, senators and representatives in the state legislature, and judicial candidates.

Beginning cash balances January 1, 1993, reported by state officeholders totaled $2,191,331, with total ending cash balances of $2,342,837 on December 31, 1993. State constitutional officers ended 1993 with total cash balances of $828,633, compared with $228,278 at the end of 1991 and $350,706 at the end of 1989. State representatives ended 1993 with total cash balances of $836,156, compared with $832,527 at the end of 1991 and $1,807,755 at the end of 1989. State senators ended 1993 with total cash balances of $768,047, compared with $741,257 at the end of 1991 and $1,598,257 at the end of 1989.

Special Elections

Included in the Board's publication are summary data filed by candidates in three special elections for state representative:

House District 1B ( July 13, 1993) - Two candidates spent a total of $37,641 from total resources of $41,683. Two candidates received public subsidy totaling $9,354.

House District 40B ( January 11, 1994) - Three candidates spent a total of $45,128 from total resources of $56,455. Two candidates received public subsidy totaling $19,950.

House District 15A ( February 8, 1994) - Three candidates spent a total of $43,444 from total resources of $62,807. Two candidates received public subsidy totaling $9,130.

Pursuant to a 1993 law, $3,592 of the public subsidy paid to candidates was based on independent expenditures made on behalf of the candidates' opponents.

Political Committees and Funds

The Board report summarizes data supplied by 316 political party committees and 394 political committees and political funds that contribute to state candidates. These entities reported receiving total contributions of $8,366,650 in 1993 from which they made total contributions of $929,405 to state candidates. Included in the $8,366,650: $1,743,263 contributed to Democratic-Farmer-Labor (DFL) committees that made $106,278 in contributions to state candidates; $1,888,721 contributed to Independent-Republican (IR) committees that made $121,391 in contributions to state candidates.

Committees of Nonofficeholders

The Board report notes that 341 committees of candidates for state office were registered with the Board during 1993 who did not seek election in the three special elections or hold elective constitutional or legislative office in 1993. The committees report making a total of $652,069 in campaign expenditures in 1993 from resources totaling $1,411,269.

General Information

The summary includes for each registered candidate committee, political party committee, political committee or fund the total contributions received; total transfers to other candidates, committees, or funds; beginning and ending cash balances; and a listing of the names of individuals, committees, or funds contributing in aggregate during 1993 more than $100 to candidates for or holders of state legislative or district court offices; more than $200 to candidates for or holders of state executive offices; and more than $200 to political party committees, political committees, or political funds. Contributors who made contributions totaling more than $1,000 to more than one candidate, political committee, or political fund are listed in the report.

A committee or fund's outstanding loans payable, unpaid bills, or disbursements other than campaign expenditures or transfers to state candidates may not be reflected in the totals reported in the summary.

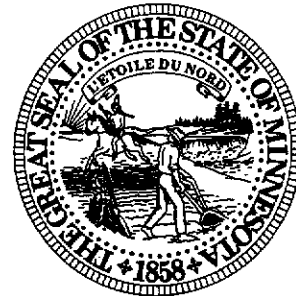

Reports of receipts and expenditures filed by candidate committees, political committees and political funds for 1993 are available for public inspection at the Board office, First Floor South, Centennial Building, 658 Cedar Street, St. Paul. Copies of legislative candidate reports are available for inspection, also, in the county auditor's office in each county in the candidate's legislative district.
